

Toyo Tire Group Environmental Protection Fund In-house Funding Plan (FY2025)

1. [Foundation fund] Organizations funded through the Osaka Community Foundation: None

2. [In-house fund] Total amount for donations and volunteer activities: 9.8 million yen

Organization/activity name	Location (prefecture)	Description
Millenium Hope Hills	Miyagi	Plants trees in disaster-affected areas to mitigate tsunami damage, and maintains them as evacuation sites and areas for biodiversity
Osaka-fu Midori no Kikin	Osaka	Provides local kindergartens and schools with desks, chairs and other furniture made of domestic timber to promote this natural material that improves children's learning environments
Itami City Biodiversity Exchange Festival	Hyogo	Promotes exchange and action among local residents to expand activities that protect and revitalize biodiversity
Toyo Tires Midori-no-Tsunagari - Mie	Mie	Maintains a mixed forest to revitalize its health, protect biodiversity and create a space for the local community to enjoy

3. [In-house fund] Total amount of grants for activities (direct grants): 3.9 million yen

Organization/activity name	Location (prefecture)	Description
NPO Shinaimotsugo Sato-no-Kai	Miyagi	Restores and conserves aquatic environments through protection and habitat restoration for endangered species such as the moroco fish
General Incorporated Association Buna wo Ueru-kai	Hyogo	Creates biodiversity-rich forests with high water retention by growing beech and deciduous broadleaf trees in Hyogo Prefecture
Council for Community Development with Millennium Coral	Tokushima	Protects one of the world's largest Porites lutea coral (through predator elimination), discovered in the inner bay of Mugi-oshima Island in Tokushima Prefecture.

Hyogo Satoyama Festa 2024	Hyogo	Local community activities to maintain forests and create greenspaces as common assets that absorb CO ₂ and replenish water resources
---------------------------	-------	--

4.[In-house fund] Total amount of grants for activities (through the Japan Philanthropic Association):
10.203 million yen

Organization/activity name	Location (prefecture)	Description
Ogasawara Bonin Oceanic Island Studies Society	Tokyo	Conducts activities to protect Sphaerorhinus rugosicephalus , a near-threatened species of weevil, on inhabited islands
Mie Prefectural Iga-Hakuho High School	Mie	Conducts activities to promote sustainable farming and protect the local environment
Osaka Natural Environment Protection Association	Osaka	Teaches students and other local residents about the natural environment through a study on dandelions
Aso Flower Field Association	Kumamoto	Project to revitalize the Aso grasslands by regenerating and conserving biodiversity to ensure the area's wild flowers can be enjoyed by future generations
Sannomori School	Fukuoka	Nature-focused alternative school that involves children in environmental protection through the Kamo River for All Project
LEAF26	Miyagi	Project supporting an OECM area* by planting Japanese camellia to create greenspace along a road * Areas that are not protected yet contribute to biodiversity conservation
Hope International Development Agency Japan	Aichi	Conducts environmental protection activities in rural Ethiopia to respond to climate change
Groundwork Mishima	Shizuoka	Conducts activities to improve and regenerate rural areas in the Daiba district of Mishima City

Network Fukushima	Niigata	Manages the Fukushima Nature Education Garden and conducts activities to expand and protect the habitats of wetland plants and other organisms
Eco-mura Denshokan	Kumamoto	Provides an environmental learning experience where children create using natural and scrap materials
Nature-Experience-Study Center	Wakayama	Conducts surveys and protection of the sea in the Tanabe-Shirahama Marine Park district