

TOYO TIRE Group Environmental Protection Fund In-house Funding Plan (FY2026)

1. [Foundation fund] Organizations funded through the Osaka Community Foundation:
None

2. [In-house fund] Total amount for donations and volunteer activities: 9.8 million yen

Organization/activity name	Location (prefecture)	Description
Millenium Hope Hills	Miyagi	Plants trees in disaster-affected areas to mitigate tsunami damage, and maintains them as evacuation sites and areas for biodiversity
Osaka-fu Midori no Kikin	Osaka	Provides local kindergartens and schools with desks, chairs and other furniture made of domestic timber to promote this natural material that improves children's learning environments
Itami City Biodiversity Exchange Festival	Hyogo	Promotes exchange and action among local residents to expand activities that protect and revitalize biodiversity
Toyo Tires Midori-no-Tsunagari - Mie	Mie	Maintains a mixed forest to revitalize its health, protect biodiversity and create a space for the local community to enjoy

3. [In-house fund] Total amount of grants for activities (direct grants): 3.8 million yen

Organization/activity name	Location (prefecture)	Description
NPO Shinaimotsugo Sato-no-Kai	Miyagi	Restores and conserves aquatic environments through protection and habitat restoration for endangered species such as the moroco fish
General Incorporated Association Buna wo Ueru-kai	Hyogo	Creates biodiversity-rich forests with high water retention by growing beech and deciduous broadleaf trees in Hyogo Prefecture
Council for Community Development with Millennium Coral	Tokushima	Protects one of the world's largest Porites lutea coral (through predator elimination), discovered in the inner bay of Mugi-oshima Island in Tokushima Prefecture.

Hyogo Satoyama Festa 2026	Hyogo	Local community activities to maintain forests and create greenspaces as common assets that absorb CO ₂ and replenish water resources
---------------------------	-------	--

[In-house fund] Total amount of grants for activities (through the Japan Philanthropic Association): 13.06 million yen

Organization/activity name	Location (prefecture)	Description
Abukuma Ushi no Se Project	Fukushima	Engages in reforestation with plant species that are used in traditional crafts and manufacturing to revitalize the local landscape and economy
Hope International Development Agency Japan	Aichi	Conducts sustainable environmental conservation across the Zaba and Kencho Shacha Gozdi districts in Ethiopia
Institute for Forest and Pasture Conservation in Central Asia	Shizuoka	Helps devise sustainable solutions to the energy crisis in the Pamir region of Tajikistan
Bonin Oceanic Island Studies Society	Tokyo	Conducts conservation efforts on inhabited islands for a species of endangered Ogasawarazo weevil endemic to the island of Chichijima