
Announcement of Change to Organizational Structure, Change of Assignments for Executive, and Personnel Changes

Hyogo, Japan – August 28, 2026 – Toyo Tire Corporation (President & CEO: Takashi Shimizu) announces the following organizational structure change, change of assignments for executive and personnel changes.

1. Organizational Structure Changes

To execute the priority themes set out in the Mid-Term '26 Plan, our new five-year medium-term business plan launched this year, the Company will implement the following organizational structure changes effective October 1, 2026 as detailed below. These changes are intended to strengthen the strategy execution function under the direct supervision of the President.

While the Corporate Strategy Division, which reports directly to the President, will continue to promote the priority themes, the Americas Sales Division will be elevated to become the Americas Business Headquarters and placed under the direct supervision of the President to strengthen strategy execution in the Americas. To strengthen the Company's ESG strategy in alignment with business management, the ESG Promotion Department will be transferred to the Corporate Strategy Division.

- 1) The Americas Sales Division, currently under the Sales Headquarters, will be elevated to become the Americas Business Headquarters and placed under the direct supervision of the President.
- 2) The Americas Sales Department will be renamed the Americas Business Development Department and transferred to the Americas Business Headquarters.
- 3) The ESG Promotion Department, currently under the Corporate Infrastructure Division, will be transferred to the Corporate Strategy Division.
